Appendix A
In Kind Values & Definition

Purpose

The purpose of this appendix is to identify the kinds of non-cash contributions ("in-kind support") that are acceptable as part of the overall sponsorship of the Pacific Rim Whale Festival, and to provide guidance on how to put a value on those contributions.

Definitions

In-kind support - a cash-equivalent contribution in the form of an asset for which no cash is exchanged but that is essential to the festival and that would have to be purchased or obtained by the festival on the open market, or through negotiation with the provider.

Fair market value - the highest price, expressed in dollars, that a property would bring in an open and unrestricted market between a willing buyer and a willing seller who are both knowledgeable, informed, and prudent, and who are acting independently of each other.

Item List - Possible In-Kind Donations / The following items will all be accounted for at fair market value;

- o Accommodations,
- o Food & Beverage (alcoholic and non)
- o Venue Rentals
- o Event Supplies (table rentals, glassware, etc)
- o Bus, Shuttle or Flight Transportation
- o Gift Certificates for services, clothing or other merchandise
- o Art Work for auction or Prizes or give-aways
- o Advertising

Volunteer Staff Time - the value of time would be based on the salary/hourly wage of the person(s) volunteering and be capped at $1,000 per business.

Item List - Not Considered In-Kind Donation

- o Web links to Pacific Rim Whale Festival
- o Word of mouth endorsement
